2:1 SUPERVISION MODEL

Positive Aspects

Negative Aspects

How and Why It Worked

- Learning about cooperation and teamwork
- Learning from peers
- Less intimidating / Easier to take initiative
- May complement each other
- Caseload

- Competition
- More work for the supervisor
- Less feedback for students
- Organization
- Different learning styles and learning rates
- Hard to provide the same learning experience for both
- May be difficult to separate
- Caseload

HOW AND WHY IT WORKED

- Roles clearly divided
- Site was very open to communication
- Supervisor very open to communication
- Supervisor recognized that we are 2 individuals each with strengths and weaknesses

HOW AND WHY IT WORKED (CONT'D)

- No competition between us; both open to feedback
- Good organization
- Not too proud to ask for help

CONCLUSION

- 2:1 supervision isn't that scary
- Supervisor and students' personalities very important to take into account
- Closer to reality than 1:1 supervision
